INFORMATION.

The only titles used in this Catalogue, are the ordinary academic and professional degrees; a different course may be adopted in a future edition, if sufficient facts be received, in the meantime, to warrant it.

All blanks in the different columns, save the last, show want of information.

In the last column, if the year be inserted, it shows when the individual died; a star prefixed (*), simply the fact of his death.

The three arrangements of names under each year are as follows:

1st. The names of all the graduates of that year.

2d. The names of students in that class who pursued a partial course here.

3d. The names of those who received honorary degrees.

NOTE BY THE COMPILER.

This Catalogue is sent forth by the compiler with many misgivings. While aware of its imperfections, however, he believes that he has used due diligence to make it as correct as his materials would allow.

To such as have given him assistance in this thankless task, he desires to render his acknowledgments, especially to Henry Gardiner, C. E., of Chicago, Class 1850, and to Edward P. Magoun, Esq., of Hudson, Class 1864.

PRESIDENTS.

Rev. JOHN D. BLAIR SMITH, D.D.

[He was the son of the Rev. Robert Smith, D.D., a Presbyterian Clergyman in Pequea, Penn., and Principal of the Classical and Theological Academy in that place; was born June 12, 1756, and graduated at the College of New Jersey, in 1773. He studied Theology with his brother, Rev. Samuel Stanhope Smith, D.D., at that time President of Hampden-Sidney College, Va.; and in 1779 succeeded his brother as Principal of the Seminary. He was installed over the Third Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, in December, 1791; presided over Union College, from 1795 to June, 1799 — returned to his former charge in Philadelphia, and died August 22, 1799, aged 43.]

Rev. JONATHAN EDWARDS, D.D.

[He was born at Northampton, Mass., May 26, 1745, O. S.; the second son of Rev. Jonathan Edwards, afterwards President of the College of New Jersey, where he graduated 1765, and studied Theology with Rev. Joseph Bellamy, D.D., Bethlem, Conn.; in 1767, was appointed Tutor in the College of New Jersey, and soon after Professor; 1769 took charge of a church in New Haven, Conn.; in 1796 was settled over the Church in Colebrook, Conn.; where he continued till called to the Presidency of Union College, in 1799. Died August 1, 1801.]

Rev. JONATHAN MAXCY, D.D.

[He was born in Attleborough, Mass., September 2, 1768; graduated at Brown University 1787; 1791 was appointed Professor of Divinity; 1792 elected President and ordained Pastor of the First Baptist Church, Providence, R. I. In 1802, he was elected President of Union College; in 1804, became first President of South Carolina College, Columbia, S. C., where he continued till his death, June 4, 1820, aged 52 years.]

Rev. ELIPHALET NOTT, D.D., LL.D.

[He was born in Ashford, Conn., 25 June, 1773; having studied divinity under the tuition of the Rev. Joel Benedict of Plainfield, in 1790 he was sent out as a missionary to Central New York, and received an invitation to take charge of the Presbyterian Church at Cherry Valley. He accepted the call and in addition to his pastoral duties became principal of the academy. In 1792 he was called to the Presbyterian Church of Albany, where he resided until 1804, when he was chosen President of Union College, which office he held until his death on the 29th day of Jan., 1866.]

Rev. LAURENS PERSEUS HICKOK, D.D., LL.D.

[He was born in Danbury, Conn., 29th Dec., 1798; graduated at Union College in 1820; licensed as a minister of the gospel in 1822, and was pastor successively at Kent and Litchfield until 1836, when he was elected Professor of Theology in Western Reserve College, Ohio. In 1844 he became Professor in the Auburn Theological Seminary, and in 1852 was appointed Professor of Mental and Moral Science and Vice President of Union College of which he was elected President in 1866. He resigned this office in 1868.]
